Dear sir, madam,

I am Kharrat Mohamed amine, a 1st year business student at Tunis Business School. I would like to show my interest and be considered for the position you offer. I am currently continuing my studies to obtain a Bachelor degree in Business Administration at Tunis Business School.

Based on my research, I am confident that I am a good match with this position. I worked on several projects both on campus and outside of TBS. These projects taught me to be organized, resistance to pressure and stress, being part of the sponsorship team and participating in various Model United Nations (MUN) gave me the opportunity to persuade others, develop and above all, to maintain good productive and lasting relationships with existing and potential customers as part of their loyalty. In addition, Implement an action plan to execute all of the project targets. I want to improve my humble knowledge and apply what I already know in Management and Marketing.

I also have strong time management and stress management skills. During the previous projects, I proved myself and my value. I showed great commitment and a desire to learn more and work hard. Being a member of various clubs and doing different tasks allowed me to love being versatile. Add to that, this experience helped me to hone my skills and learn more effective ways to get things done. and so I'm looking to do more and earn more with you.

I think you will find that I am qualified to do a good job for you. In addition, I have the energy and the skills to work very hard. Please contact me at 28294334, if you need more information. I look forward to discussing this opportunity with you. I will wait patiently for the date and time of the meeting for the interview.

Sincerely,
Kharrat Mohamed Amine
